

Contribution rules

§ 1 Determination and amendment

These contribution rules are not part of the statutes. It regulates the contribution obligations of the members and is valid with the signature of the executive committee of the association after presentation of the resolution by the general meeting. An amendment of the contribution rules as well as the contribution rates stipulated therein shall be made on the proposal of the ordinary Executive Committee and must be confirmed by a resolution of the General Assembly of Members in accordance with § 10 para. 3.

§ 2 Payment

Payments shall be made to the bank reference account deposited by the Association. If the association is dissolved, the membership fees shall be used by application in accordance with § 17 para. 2 of the association's statutes.

§ 3 Contributions

The amount of the contribution shall be determined by applying the following classifications:

Non-profit scientific institutions / research institutions / natural persons	1.000 EUR p.a.
Small and medium-sized enterprises (<250 employees and <50 million EUR annual turnover)	6.000 EUR p.a.
Other enterprises, as far as not SMEs	10.000 EUR p.a.

Associations shall pay membership fees for their members in accordance with the above scale. Membership fees for their members, as far as they are not individual members of aireg. In the case of umbrella associations, this contribution rule shall also apply to the members of the individual associations in the umbrella association concerned.

In agreement with the Executive Board, a reduction in the fee may also be agreed with individual members if payment of the full amount is not appropriate for comprehensible and justified reasons. Honorary members shall not be required to pay dues. The membership status existing on the due date shall be decisive for the amount of the subscription.

§ 4 Maturity

The obligation to pay membership fees exists for the full current calendar year (January 1st to December 31st). In case of a declaration of withdrawal, the obligation to pay membership fees also exists for the calendar year in which the declaration of withdrawal becomes legally effective. The membership fee is due at the beginning of each year.

...